MAY 6th 2021

Elected to represent your views on policing and crime locally. Directly accountable to you, the public

Commissions dedicated local victim support services, that you can access to help you cope and recover, if you become a victim of crime

Funds crime prevention services to address issues such as drug and alcohol misuse, youth crime and anti-social behaviour to keep your communities safe

After consulting local people, publishes a Police and Crime Plan to identify local priorities and how they plan to meet them

Works with national and local policing and Criminal Justice partners to reduce crime and help make communities safer

Works with local authorities, health and education services, plus the voluntary sector and local businesses to create a joined-up response to local problems

What does your Police and Crime Commissioner do for you?

YOU HAVE A VOICE ...

Some Police and Crime Commissioners are also responsible for their local Fire and Rescue Services

Holds the Chief Constable to account for delivering an effective and efficient police service

Appoints the Chief Constable who runs the operational side of policing in your force area

Sets the police budget, decides how much you pay towards policing from your council tax, to add to the funding from central Government and decides how that combined money is spent
